HEADLINES

CRUNCH TIME IS HERE AS RUSH MEET STEELHEADS

The Rapid City Rush are currently seven points back of an ECHL playoff spot, due largely to the Idaho Steelheads coughing up back-to-back games to Utah last weekend. The Rush, with an elimination number of five, can exact their revenge on an uncooperative Steelheads group with a victory tonight. The Rush took three-of-six points from Idaho on their only other trip to Idaho Central Arena this season, but find themselves needing points coupled with losses from Utah and/or Tulsa to remain in the playoff hunt.

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

Earlier today, Blake Bennett was tabbed at the Howies Hockey Tape ECHL Rookie of the Month. Bennett is capping off a month that saw him score 18 points in 14 games. Bennett's best showing came on a five-point night on March 29 against Allen where he tallied his first-career hat trick vs. the Americans in a 6-3 win. Bennett leads all ECHL rookies in goals with 33 and sits third in over ECHL goal scoring. He is fifth in rookie points.

ALEARDI NEARING HISTORICAL MARK

Alex Aleardi has crossed over the 70-point threshold for the first-time in his pro career. Aleardi is five points shy of tying Jesse Schultz's single-season ECHL points record for the Rush (77) set in 2014-15. Aleardi has been the team's points leader for the large majority of the season, sits in pole position on the Rush assists list, and is second behind Bennett in goals. The veteran also just played in his 500th professional career game this season.

PROPP-ING UP

Christian Propp has logged at least one standings point in each of his first four starts for the Rush this season. Propp stopped 39 in a 6-3 win on Saturday against Allen to set his single-game career high in saves. The first-year out of Wilfrid Laurier University capped off a college season that saw him score 11 wins in 24 starts, plus grabbing Laurier their first playoff series win in over 10 years. Propp is 3-1-1 in his professional career overall.

February 17, 2024

Coming off a game where they scored three goals in 85 seconds to come-from-behind and win 5-4, the Steelheads only needed three to defeat the Rush on Rush Fights Cancer night. Rapid City ended the season without gaining a single point against the Steelheads at home this season at 0-8-0 vs. Idaho this year.

RUSH RECORDS LOOKING SHAKY

Blake Bennett and Alex Aleardi have shots of tracking down Rapid City Rush history with the following potential records

Rush (ECHL) Single-Season Goals

Jesse Schultz	34
BLAKE BENNETT	33

Rush (All-Time) Single-Season Goals

Ryan Menei	39
Konrad Reeder	37
Jesse Schultz	34
BLAKE BENNETT	33

Rush (ECHL) Single-Season Points

Jesse Schultz	77
ALEX ALEARDI	72

During Ryan Menei's 39-goal season, he has the Rush all-time record in points with 89 that season.

HAVE TO HAVE IT

The Rush re-surge through March saw the team post their second-best month this year with seven wins. However, the Rush have to have a game against the Steelheads to remain alive in the playoff race, even without the help of Utah and Tulsa. The Rush have a maximum number of 70 possible points this season.

ROAD WARRIORS

Rapid City has a 15-16-2-0 record on the road this year, two games beyond last season's team road success. The Rush have not been swept on the road since losing three straight to Utah to close January.

11 FOR 3

Saturday night marked 11 straight games of Rapid City scoring three or more goals vs. an opponent. The scoring surge has pushed the Rush to their best stretch of 11 games this season at 7-3-1 and very much within striking distance of the playoffs.

ALL HERE AND ACCOUNTED FOR

The Rush have traveled every healthy player to Idaho for the final road trip of the season, meaning Scott Burt has every active player at his disposal for this critical stretch of three games. The Rush won their last game in Idaho 7-4, defeating Jared Moe in net. That is the only win of the season over the Steelheads, but the Rush nabbed another point on the December road trip with a 5-4 overtime loss.

THE ELIMINATION NUMBER (E#)

The Rush elimination number is now 5 points.

If that number is above zero after the end of the regular season, the Rush will make the playoffs.

The number decreases by TWO every time Utah/Tulsa wins in regulation or the Rush lose in regulation. The number decreases by ONE every time the Rush or Utah/Tulsa lose in overtime/shootout. And the number stays the same with the Rush win in regulation or Utah/Tulsa loses in regulation. If the number hits zero, the Rush are eliminated from playoff contention.

ROOTING GUIDE

For the Rush to get the most out of the results tonight, here's who Rush fans should be pulling for in tonight's games

Wray joined the Rush after spending two seasons with the rival Rocky Mountain Rage in the CHL. His first season in Rapid City was his best year of professional hockey with 31 goals, 47 assists and 78 points. That season, Wray would help lead Rapid City to their only hockey championship, winning the CHL Ray Miron Presidents Cup. Wray is the only Rush player to ever eclipse 100 goals with the franchise (106) and his 314 games played rank second in franchise history. In 2010-11 and from 2012-14, Wray served as the Rush captain. After his retirement in 2014, Wray was the head coach of the Powassan VooDoo of the NOJHL and is currently an assistant with the OHL's North Bay Battalion where he has been since 2017.

30 DANNY BATTOCHIO Retired: Saturday – March 31, 2018

After a strong OHL career and three years at St. Francis Xavier University, Battocchio joined the Rush and played every North American game of his career with the team. In 2010, he was named a CHL all-rookie team member and backstopped the Rush to a CHL title. With 131 career wins with Rapid City, no other goaltender has come close to the impact Battocchio made during his tenure with the Rush. In every professional season, he posted a better-than-.900 save percentage and posted a winning record all but one season between the pipes. Still living in the Black Hills, Battocchio has served as an emergency backup goaltender for the Rush in seasons past, donning his iconic number 30 each time.

6 RILEY WESELOWSKI Retired: Saturday – October 29, 2022
